

100 Banners: A celebration of women's suffrage in Merton.

Do you enjoy crafts, or have an interest in local heritage? Join our special banner-making workshop to mark 100 years since British women were granted the vote.

Discover more about Merton suffragettes and help to make your own piece of history. In addition to local displays, our banners will also feature in commemorative processions and gatherings across London as part of the 100 Banners project.

8 February, 10.30am – 4pm. FREE event.
